TIZIANA TERENZI

Straight from Matera, Italy – this regal brand has one scent that positively drives me crazy. Draco represents strength, comparable to the cavernous homes of its origin, yet the fragrance is warmed by earthy notes. Throughout the day, Draco reveals itself, surfacing when you least expect it. A scent that at first seems almost sycophant and graceful, certainly will whisk you away forever. Do you love bergamot, lemon, orange, green, peach, jasmine, cedar, patchouli, magnolia, vanilla, tonka bean, musk, pear and heliotrope? We do! Available at: Saks, Brickell City Centre

And, you can meet Tiziana Terenzi should you wish at Saks on Brickell on March 19! He will be doing a personal appearance, so stop by!

LANCÔME

No joke, I have been stopped by strangers because of this custom foundation, which like its name, is particulier! The most bespoke foundation in the market, Lancôme just launched this foundation which is a perfect match to your skin tone. All you do is go to Merrick Park’s Nordstrom and let the Lancôme specialist create their magic. They place a device on your face which reads your tone, and in front of your very eyes, they create your very own skin color in a bottle! You can also customize the label! A great gift, too, just buy a friend a gift certificate and let them enjoy! ONLY available at: Nordstrom, Merrick Park.

WHEN BEAUTY

Toning is my savior. In fact, when people ask me how I keep a perfect, flawless face, I truly believe this is the key to my success. Most recently I discovered When Beauty’s toner – in spray form, and I will never turn back. Spray on a cotton pad and remove your excess dirt in the blink of an eye. I use it both mornings, and night, too! Available at: whenbeautyus.com.

REPECHAGE

If you require more of a strong toner, these astringent pads are perfection. One wipe does the job, and they are so good, that when I travel, I throw them in my bag for long-haul trips. Seaweed-based, that must be the reason they do not dry out your skin. Available at: repechage.com.

BEAUTOLOGY LAB

These NANO-ACTIVE UNDEREYE PADS have saved my day – on many occasions! Peel back the aluminum, and slip ‘em on under your eyes and instantly your skin absorbs this magic solution. Reducing puffiness and circles you will certainly thank us later. Available at: beautologylab.com.

GAMMA+

Straight from Italy, this is as golden as it gets! Rose gold, that is! The lightest and fastest in its professional class, impressive especially because there is an off-or-on ionic option, it was engineered for all hair types, as well as to give volume and texture to fine, thin or delicate hair. Available at Amazon.com.

LA PRAIRIE

This fluffy yet rich White Caviar Creme Extraordinaire is one of the most recent products added to the renowned roster of Switzerland’s finest La Prairie. My mother swears by this – combatting her age spots and creating more illuminated skin! Available at Saks Fifth Avenue, Bal Harbour Shops.

LOVA SKIN

Do you suffer from dry feet? Well, all of my life, I did. That was then – and, this is now! I discovered this product last year and ever since, have become a shower addict. All you do is: keep in your shower, spritz the product on the dry areas, and one minute later – use the tool to scrub away. Best invention, ever. Available at: lovaskin.com.

MADAME LEMY – POWDER DEODORANT

Himalayan salt-based, this product is not only chic via packaging, the deodorant/antiperspirant has some magical healing powers, too! As if that were not enough, how interesting to know that it was created in its founder’s kitchen after never discovering the perfect product. All you do is pat and apply liberally. Two puffs per arm does the job! Available at: madamelemy.com.

US.K – UNDER SKIN

Post-shower, the revitalizing elixir is simply perfection. We love the pearl and caviar infusion, morning, noon and night. The serum is clean feeling, light on the skin, and shines in a very iridescent manner. My sister-in-law Jessica swears by it, too! Available at: underskin.com.

CTRLCOSMETICS

Have you ever heard of a non-sticky lip gloss? This is simply everything you needed in your life. The formulation is a miracle in the lip-verse, and this color stops traffic. Somehow, it is a NON-sticky gloss, and I always keep one in each bag to ensure I am covered. Definitely do not miss the Skinny-Dip shade, which is suitable for all skin tones! Available at: ctrlcosmetics.com.

LIP SMART

Proven to be the solution to all of your lip problems, do you experience dryness? Do you use fillers? Well, well...I do, and every time I go head to Danielle Smith N.P. for my touch up, I make sure to have my Lip Smart present. Even sans injections, it is silky, smooth, and nourishes, volumizes and provides visible results in just 60 seconds! Available at: lipsmart.com.

SISLEY

This radiance foaming cleanser is my saving grace at the end of a late night. It subsequently looks gorgeous in my shower! Plant-based Sisley is a genius brand from France, and this foam is guaranteed to remove every morsel of that mascara that no other brand is able to remove! Available at: Saks Bal Harbour.

oHhO - CBD DROPS

Plants with benefits, indeed, I discovered this tincture while in Manhattan. Straight from the Hudson Valley and produced from seed-to-bottle, this organic bottle is pure magic, and certainly helps me sleep oHH-o much better! Available at weareohho.com

MY ALCHEMISTA

Are you a fan of sleeping well? Well, I am too, and these gels do the job! Rather than dosing yourself with CBD, all you need to do is take one of these gels and voila! Available at: myalchemista.com.

HAIELLE

This entire line is pure magic. The oil melts into your hair, leaving a non-greasy, light shine. The hair mask is light and weekly, I use it sans shampoo and when I rinse, my hair is beach wave central sans ocean visit – and then there is the brand-new shampoo that launched which is the talk of Miami. Anybody who is anybody is using Haielle’s revolutionary hydrating shampoo. Be part of the cult and trust. Available at: haielle.com

BIANCA DE LA GARZA

In Glo We Trust – best name ever for a golden lip gloss! Not only is the name creative, the product plumped my pout in the most pleasurable way, ever. Treat, plump and go – in one stop is their motto, and the product definitely does all of the above! The tip of this balm is also unique and allows for swift application. Formulated with BDG Beauty Complex™ and active youth-boosting ingredients, the balm is a comprehensive treatment for the delicate lip area, whilst offering hydration, conditioning, boosting moisture levels and relieving dryness and chapping. Available at: bdgbeauty.com

COSTA BRAZIL

The former creative director of Calvin Klein came back with a vengeance – launching a few sustainably sourced products, from skincare to candles. The embossed packaging is enough of a reason to purchase – but let me start with the candle. When you actually experience the candle in your home, you will never turn back. Now – to skin! The anti-aging serum is also part of my daily routine – simply flawless alone or when paired with a cream. Available at: livecostabrazil.com

CALIFORNIA DREAM by Louis Vuitton

Louis Vuitton’s master perfumer Jacques Cavallier Belletrud created a blend of mandarin, ambrette, and benzoin which launches in April. Of course, we got a chance to sample this wildly beautiful blend - which was also a collaboration with the multi-media artist Alex Israel who perfectly captured California’s sunset. Available at: Louis Vuitton, the Design District

BELLA SKIN BEAUTY

Locally made, Bella’s Manuka Coffee face scrub is my addiction. When you use this exfoliant under hot water, your shower smells like a coffee shop – but in reality, this blend of Manuka honey and coffee rinds do the trick, removing the dead skin layers that accumulate. When using, just add a dollop to your hands and rub your face and neck in a circular motion. Available at: bellaskinbeauty.com
